

Human Services: A Degree with a Variety of Options! A Degree with a Variety of Options!

One degree can lead to many careers:

Mental Health

- County Social Services Agency      Case Managers
- Para-professional Counseling      Residential Treatment Workers
- Outreach Workers

Graduate school preparation for advanced degrees in Counseling and Social Work.

Administration And Community Practice

- Program Manager for a Non-Profit Organization

Substance Abuse Treatment And Prevention

- Clinical/Case Manager      - Residential Treatment Workers
- Outreach Workers for Substance Abuse Prevention Programs

Preparation for California Association for Alcohol/Drug Educator's Certification Exam.

Elementary Education

- Teaching Assistant
- Tutoring

Credential program preparation for pursuit of a career in teaching.

Gerontology

- Adult Residential Care Workers
- Community Education Program/Support Group Facilitators

Preparation for an advanced degree in Gerontology.

Persons with Disabilities

- Special Education Teacher
- Regional Center Worker
- Agencies for persons with disabilities i.e. Vocational Rehabilitation

Degree Overview

- 54 units
- Approximately 675+ current Human Services majors
- Opportunity to build your resume:
Three Semester Internship Requirement (120 hours at approved site of your choice)

Examples include:

- O.C. Social Services Agency      - Women's Transitional Living Center
- O.C. Department of Probation      - O.C. Department of Education
- Salvation Army      - Acacia Adult Daycare Center

Advisor: Lorraine Klein, M.S. EC 479 (657) 278-3015 husradvising@fullerton.edu For appointments call (657) 278-5472
Human Services Department EC 405, (657) 278-8444 Website: <http://hhd.fullerton.edu/HUSR/index.htm>

The Human Services degree is offered to equip those who are intelligent, compassionate, resourceful and have a desire to pursue a helping profession such as: social work, counseling, psychotherapy, non-profit administration or teaching. Human services majors receive the academic preparation and hands-on training required for lifelong careers in one of hundreds of fulfilling jobs that seek to bring about a positive change in society, as well as in individuals and families.