Random Acts of Kindness Ideas from Clients

Clients were encouraged to go out and participate in their own random act of kindness during national random act of kindness week. These are the ideas that were turned in.

1. Open the post office door for someone carrying a big package.
2. Delivering the morning paper to my husband in bed.
3. Invited a new church member to lunch after service and invited her to the women’s bible study fellowship.
4. I gave a neighbor a ride to work all week until her car was repaired.
5. Recycle.
6. Open the door for someone.
7. Help someone across the street.
8. Pick up dog dirt and paper wrappers in the park.
9. Take a friend to the doctor’s office.
10. Help someone cross the street.
11. Say hello to someone.
12. Donate a book to the library.
