About VolunteerMatch

Note: The following excerpts are from the VolunteerMatch.org website, found at http://www.volunteermatch.org/

VolunteerMatch strengthens communities by making it easier for good people and good causes to connect. The organization offers a variety of online services to support a community of nonprofit, volunteer and business leaders committed to civic engagement.

Simple Steps to Get Involved through VolunteerMatch

Follow these steps and you'll be volunteering in no time!

1. Visit our Search page and enter your city, town, or ZIP code.
2. Find a listing that interests you. You can either click on its title for additional details about the opportunity, or click on the name of the organization to learn about the volunteer organization and read any reviews or recommendations.
3. When you are ready to commit to specific volunteering opportunity, look for the yellow 'I want to help' button.
4. You will be prompted to register for a VolunteerMatch account if you do not already have one, and then an automatic email will be sent to the volunteer organization notifying them of your interest.

Webinars Offered on How to Be a Great Volunteer through VolunteerMatch

Are you new to volunteering, or wondering how to get more out of your volunteering experience? Have you had a hard time finding the right place to volunteer? This webinar will walk you through some of the training and screening tools nonprofits use, and will better prepare you to ask questions and evaluate whether the organization is a good fit for you and your skills. Potential stumbling blocks that volunteers encounter will be covered, as well as tools to help you identify and overcome them. Presented by two experienced volunteer managers this is an opportunity for you to ask questions and learn how to be a great volunteer.
